Adelaide University

a new university for South Australia

We're planning for an exciting new future.

The new Adelaide University, which is targeted to open in January 2026, will combine the strengths of the University of South Australia and the University of Adelaide to offer contemporary curriculum aligned to industry and enterprise, provide more flexible and accessible ways to study, and aim to deliver the best in research, student experience and graduate outcomes.

There are no changes for 2025 entry. If you start your studies with the University of South Australia or the University of Adelaide, you'll be highly supported in your transition to the new institution in either your existing or an equivalent program. Graduates from 2026 onwards will receive their award from the new Adelaide University.

DISCOVER ADELAIDE

Adelaide is a cultural destination with many different nationalities, foods, festivals and events. It is home to some of the country's best beaches, wine regions and parklands.

Adelaide is a city shaped by stories. The first of these stories were created by the Kaurna people of the Adelaide Plains, which remain alive today and are interwoven with the stories of all the people who choose to live, work and study in Adelaide. The city is a celebration of diversity and inclusion with a strong sense of community.

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

You will find bus stops near each campus and train stations close to the city and Mawson Lakes campuses. Check your bus, train or tram options on the Adelaide Metro website. You will also be eligible for substantial student discounts after enrolment, including purchases of 28-day unlimited passes.

AFFORDABLE

Adelaide has one of the highest standards of living in the world, yet is one of the least expensive. This means more money to spend on food, accommodation, supplies, travel and entertainment.

2 WOMADelaide festival / An annual estival showcasing music, arts, dance and ideas from around the world.

The Centre for English Language at the University of South Australia (CELUSA), located at UniSA's City West campus, delivers high quality Academic English programs designed to prepare students from non-English speaking backgrounds for university study.

CELUSA is suited to both undergraduate and postgraduate applicants who do not meet the University's English language entry requirements and offers Academic English (AE) language preparation programs.

Students who are eligible for and successfully complete an AE program (at an appropriate level) will be able to commence their studies at UniSA or a pathway program through SAIBT. CELUSA is also an IELTS and OET test centre.
